Freelancers now have a place to call their own

FOR THE CALGARY HERALD NOVEMBER 22, 2009

What: Launch of Cowork YYC

Freelancers tired of grinding out the day alone in tiny home offices or hunched over laptops at their local coffee house have a new alternative in workplace space.

A state-of-the-art, refurbished office area--fit for a successful CEO, but priced out for a newly established cottage business owner--has opened in Calgary.

Self-employed freelancers of all kinds (from writers to graphic designers) now have the option of renting a desk at Cowork YYC, in Calgary's Ramsey neighbourhood.

The communal office space allows individuals to rent desk for about $450 a month. Amenities include everything a business owner could desire, from Internet and office equipment to bathrooms, showers, and a sleek corporate area for entertaining clients.

Cowork YYC was launched on Nov. 13. For more information, visit coworkyyc.com.
